- well-developed written, oral and organisational skills;
- an innovative approach to teaching and learning;
- a comprehensive understanding of classroom differentiation;
- a commitment to detailed and timely feedback to students; and,
- a deep understanding of how students think and learn.

The successful candidate will also need to demonstrate innovative use of ICT in teaching and learning, proficiency in writing teaching programmes, and understanding best practices in student assessment and feedback. The desire to contribute to the outdoor education and co-curricular programmes that provide a rich experience for our students and a rewarding sense of job satisfaction for our teachers is imperative.

Applications for these positions are only accepted via the Teaching Staff Online Application Form. In addition, candidates are required to upload a covering letter, a Curriculum Vitae, academic transcript and a recent photograph.
